EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW

WEATHER IN CRETE, GREECE

Crete boasts a Mediterranean climate along the coast and alpine conditions in the mountains. During the inviting months of spring, summer, and autumn, temperatures are delightful. Spring introduces mild warmth, paving the way for summer, where temperatures can soar up to a balmy 35°C (95°F). The sea retains its comfortable warmth, allowing for a refreshing swim from May to October. Winter remains mild, ensuring a pleasant atmosphere for visitors throughout most of the year.

ATTIRE GUIDE

As you embark on various outdoor activities in the captivating landscapes, we recommend suitable attire, adjusted to the season and weather conditions. During these vibrant seasons, pack comfortable outdoor clothing. The weather fluctuates from warm and sunny to occasional rain and cool evenings. Ensure you have suitable attire for varying conditions. For hikes, opt for closed shoes and comfortable clothing. For sunnier days, sunglasses and a hat/cap are advisable, along with sun protection. A swimsuit is essential if you plan to take a refreshing swim during your activities. Don't forget your camera to capture the breathtaking panoramas that Crete has to offer.

TIME ZONE IN CRETE, GREECE

Crete follows the Eastern European Time (EET) zone. It is GMT/UTC + 2 hours during Standard Time and switches to GMT/UTC + 3 hours during Daylight Saving Time.
